

Lifelong Learning Programme 2007 – 2013

GRUNDTVIG and the GRUNDTVIG Workshops

The Lifelong Learning Programme

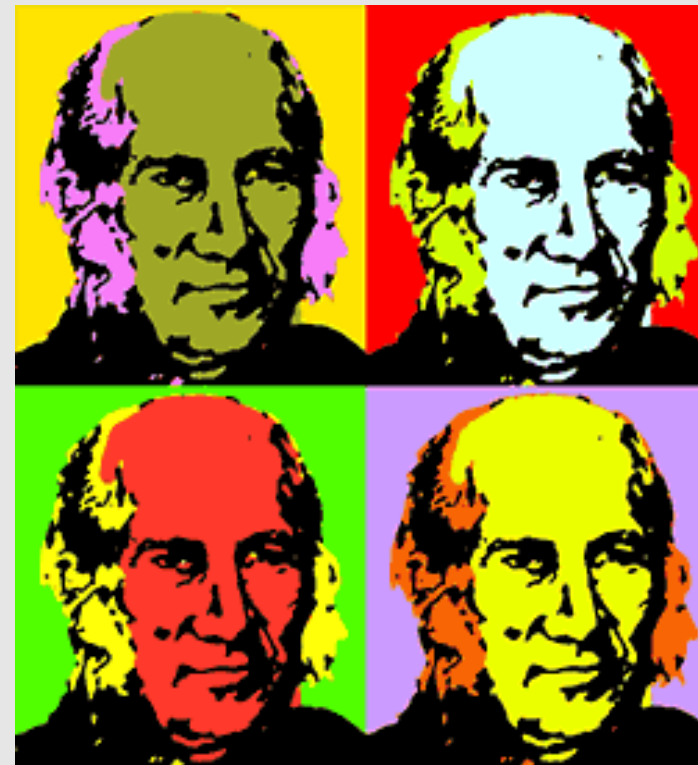

- It is an educational programme of the European Union
- Grundtvig, Erasmus, Leonardo da Vinci and Comenius are all parts of it
- All programmes are co-financed by the European Union (European Commission)
- Within the Grundtvig programme, there are 9 actions. Workshops are of one of those actions

GRUNDTVIG

Nikolaj Frederik Severin Grundtvig (1783-1872)

- Danish theologian, philosopher, politician and pedagogue
- Founder of the Scandinavian adult education centres
- Coined the idea of lifelong learning for all

Global aims – GRUNDTVIG...

- ...supports learners, teachers and organisations involved in general adult education
- ...offers opportunities for adults to develop their personal abilities and their knowledge
- ...promotes education in our society
- ...sustains mobility and exchange within Europe

Specific targets – GRUNDTVIG aims at...

- ...increasing the mobility of European citizens
- ...supporting people at risk, discriminated or marginalised people in our society
- ...promoting intercultural learning and exchange
- ... strengthening the cooperation among adult education institutions on a European level

Which countries can participate in the Programme?

- 27 EU countries: Belgium, Bulgaria, France, UK, Ireland, Denmark, Romania, Sweden, Finland, Germany, Greece, Italy, Austria, Luxemburg, The Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Poland, Czech Republic, Hungary, Latvia, Estonia, Lithuania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Malta und Cyprus

- Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein

- Turkey

- Croatia

- Switzerland

Workshops

AIMS:

- Offer a learning opportunity for adults of many countries
- Create a space for personal experiences and exchange
- Develop own knowledge and abilities in a group
- Enjoy learning → lifelong learning

GRUNDTVIG supports new learning paths and Europe!!